

caillou

Book 1-3

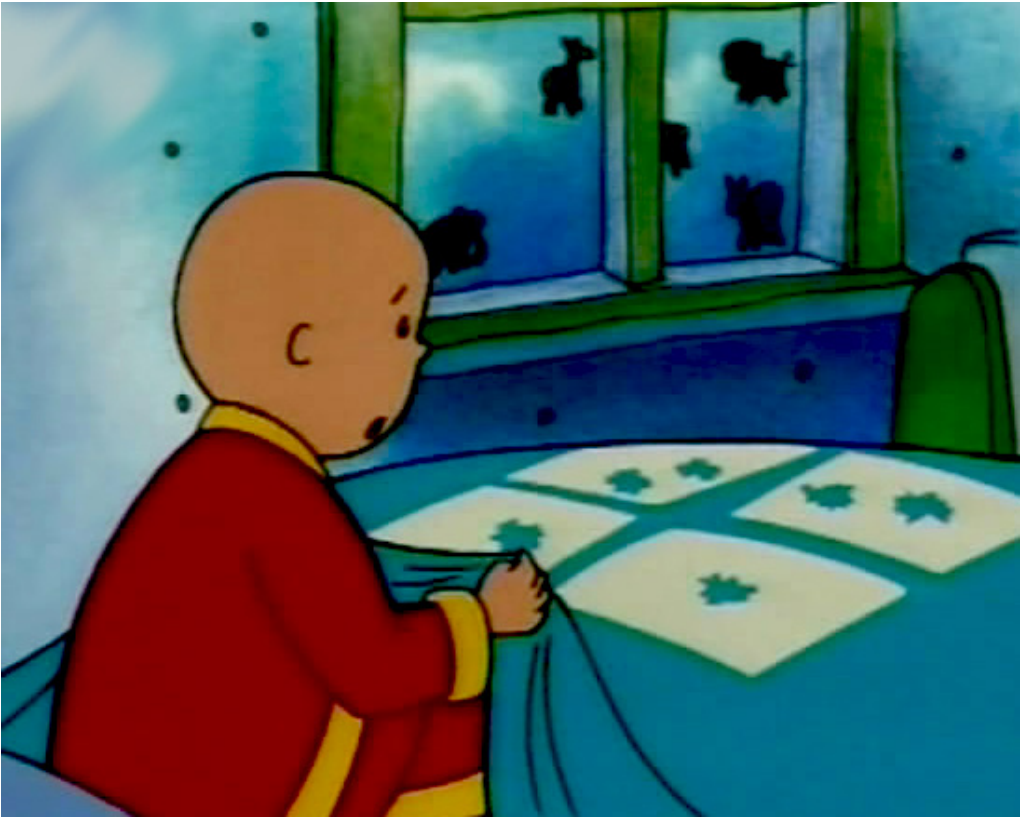

Storyteller: Story time, kids. This all happened when Caillou was just three years old. Today's story is called "Caillou is Afraid of the Dark."

Daddy: Good-night, Caillou. Have sweet dreams.

Mommy: Sleep tight, don't let bed bugs bite.

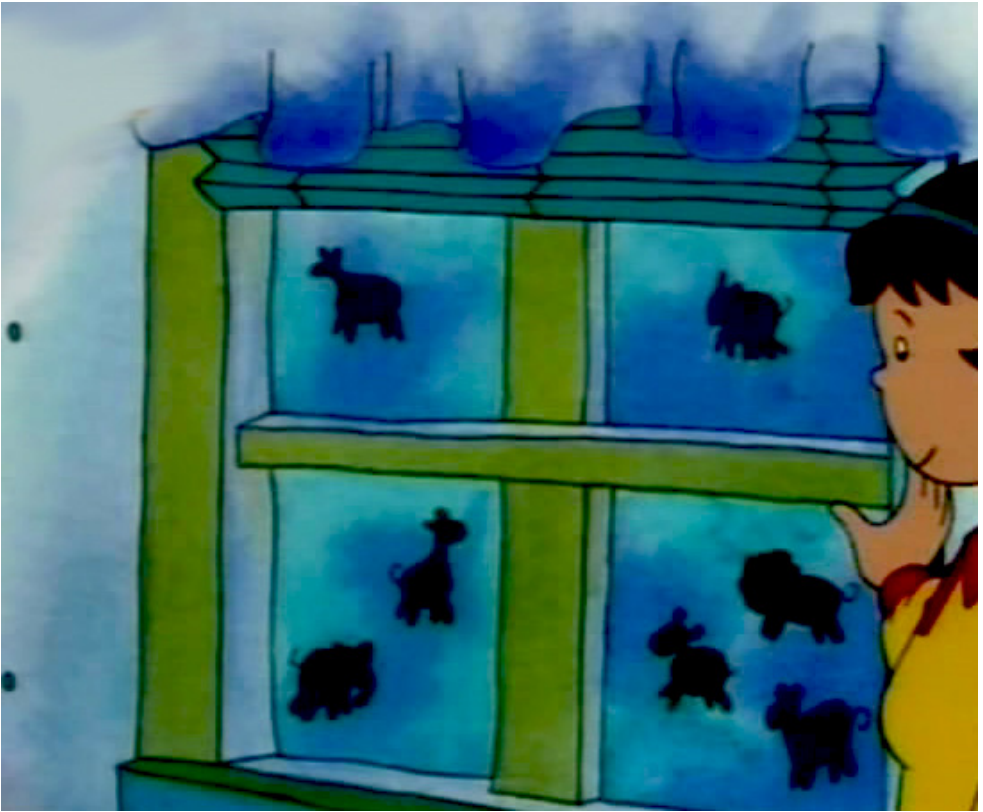

Caillou: Okay, sleep tight, don't let bed bugs bite.

Caillou: Oh, bed bugs?! Ha, Mommy!

Mommy: Caillou, what's wrong?

Caillou: Bugs, Mommy!

Mommy: There, all gone. They were just shadows.

Caillou: But what about this scratchy monster?

Mommy: I don't hear a scratchy monster.

Caillou: There is a scratchy monster in here. He's making scratchy sounds.

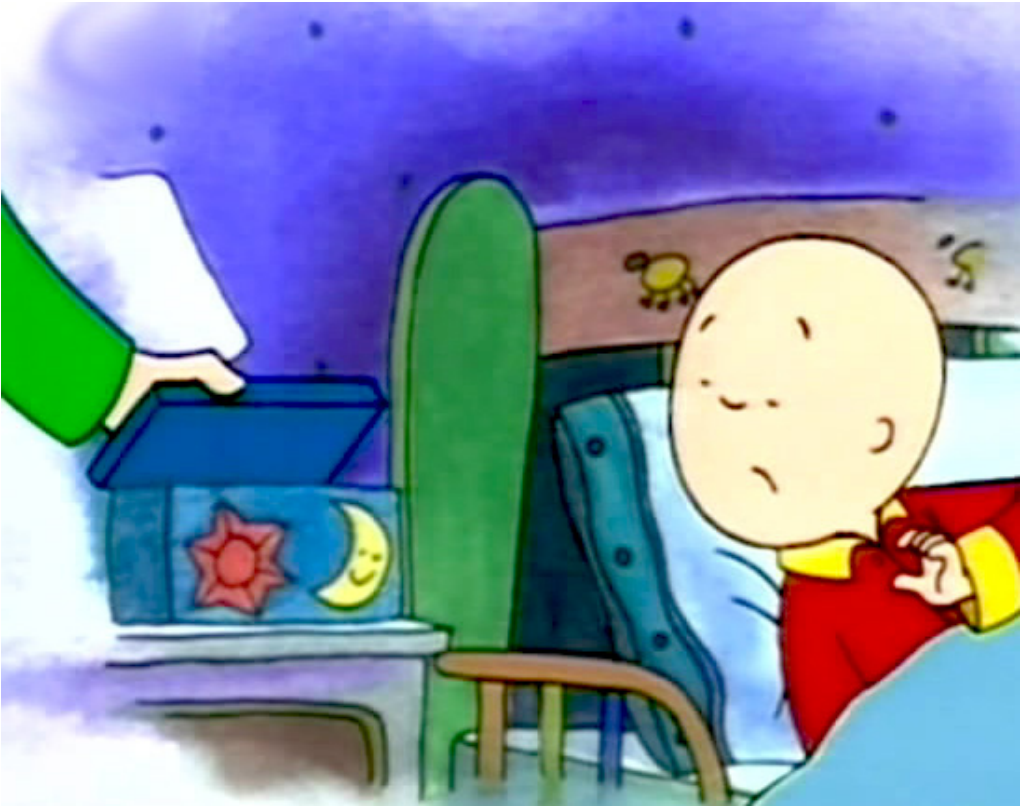

Mommy: I'm sure you think you heard something. But there's no need to be afraid of monsters, do you know why? Because monsters aren't real! They're just make-believe. Good-night, dear!

Caillou: I'm not afraid of Monsters. I'm not afraid of Monsters. Oh! Ah! Daddy!

Daddy: It's ok, Caillou. It's just your toy, Snaky.

Caillou: Yes, but there was a flying monster and a scratchy monster. It's in my room.

Daddy: You probably just imagined you heard something Caillou. I can't find anything.

Caillou: But the scratchy Monster, it went "Crash-crash!"

Daddy: Try listening to the music box. It'll make happy sounds for you while you're asleep. Good night, Caillou.

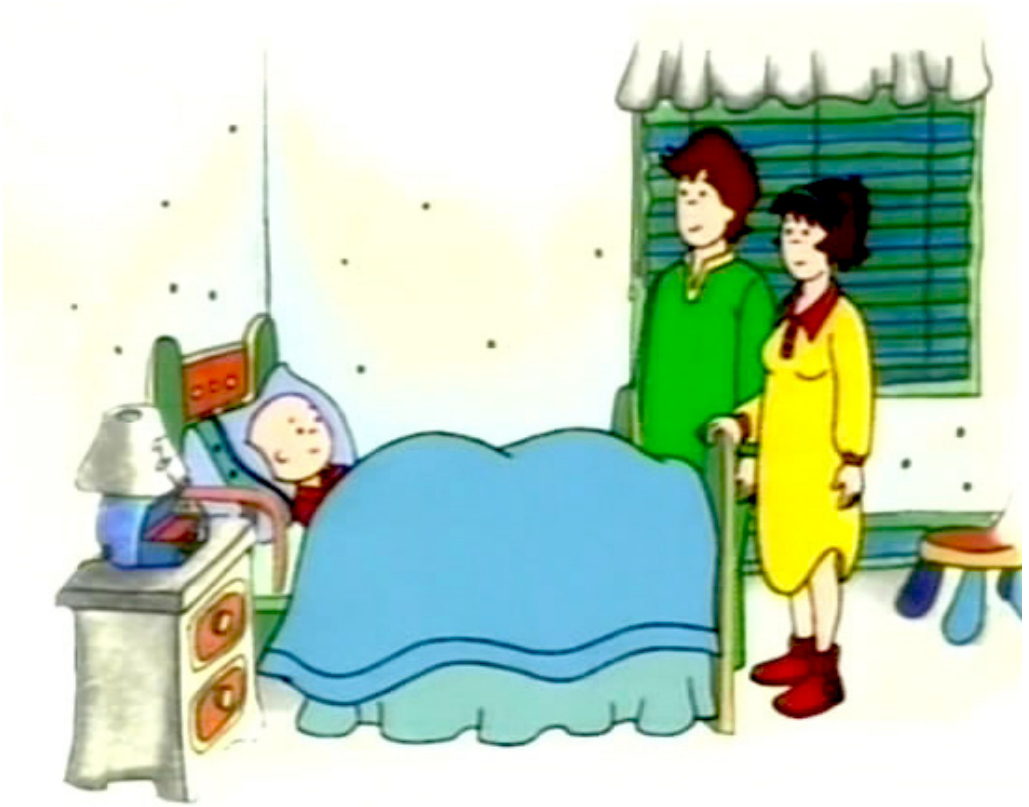

Caillou: Ha, Mommy! Daddy! The scratchy Monster! He's got me! Help!

Aaaa... a two-headed monster! There was a..., the music box, I heard a -eeeeee! And a scratching noise and a.....

Daddy: The wind was making the tree branch hit the window. That's what was making the scary noise?

Mommy: See, darling. Sometimes ordinary things can seem scary.

Caillou: So the scratchy Monster was just the tree?

Caillou: look! The scratchy monster! It wasn't a monster. It was just Gilbert.

Daddy: That cat.

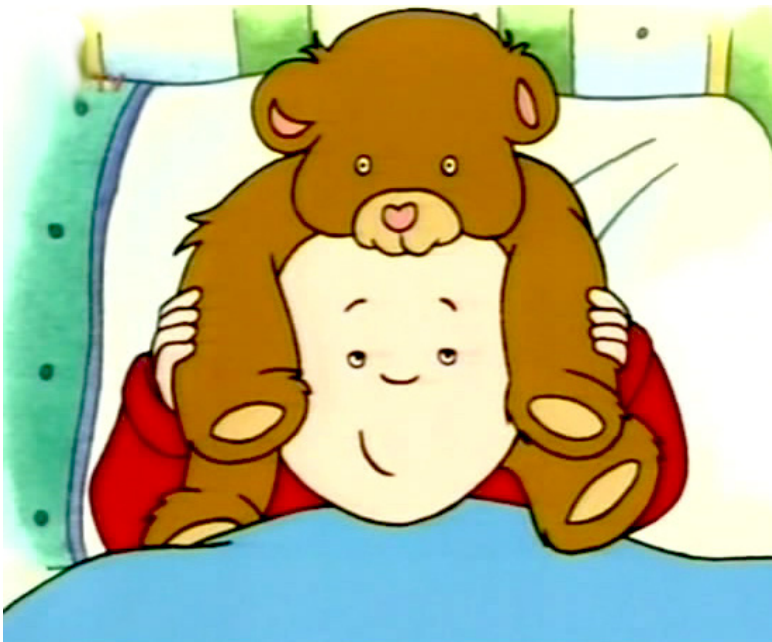

Mommy: You'll be able to sleep fine now, dear.

Daddy: With a little help from Teddy.

Caillou: I hope there won't be any more scary sounds.

Daddy: I know how Teddy can help make sure there won't be any more scary sounds.

D&M: Goodnight, Caillou.
